French Red Wines

Bordeaux

Bordeaux is one of France most important fine wine regions, it produces large quantities of wine, ranging from everyday table wine, to some of the most prestigious and expensive wines in the world. Vineyards are located on both sides of the Gironde River, which flows through the region. Red Bordeaux wines are generally made from a blend of grapes; Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Cabernet Franc, Petit Verdot, Malbec and Carmenerre.

Bordeaux - Left Bank

The most prestigious Appellations are located in the Haut-Medoc AOP, home to some of the world's most distinguished and iconic producers of Cabernet Sauvignon based blend wine, enshrined in the famous 1855 Classification of Bordeaux. Commissioned by Emperor Napoleon III, this Classification ranked the top Bordeaux properties, categorized by price into first through fifth growth.

Bordeaux - Right Bank

The most important Appellations are Saint-Emilion and Pomerol. Wines of those communes are both Merlot based blends, usually 70-80% Merlot with 20% Cabernet Franc. Percentages may vary by Chateau.

Saint-Emilion

Saint Emilion AOP has its own classification, which is revised every 10 years, based on changes in stature on a peer-revision tasting of the wine.
